WHEREAS, defendant consents to the forfeiture of specific property;

It is hereby ORDERED that the government's motion for a preliminary order of forfeiture (doc. no. 94) is granted as follows:

2. The court has determined that the following property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c); that the defendant has an interest in such property; and, that the United States has established the requisite nexus between such property and such offenses: $6,490.00 seized on December 21, 2016, from defendant Eunises Llorca-Meneses.

6. Any person, other than the above-named defendants, asserting a legal interest in the subject property may, within thirty days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his alleged interest in the subject property, and for an amendment of the order of forfeiture, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c) which incorporates 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(6).

7. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure

8. Any petition filed by a third party asserting an interest in the subject property shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the subject property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the subject property, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

9. After the disposition of any motion filed under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

10. The United States shall have clear title to the subject property following the court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2), which is incorporated by 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), for the filing of third-party petitions.

11. The court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this order and to amend it as necessary pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(e).

12. It is further ORDERED that the clerk of the court shall note entry of this order in writing on the Judgment in a Criminal Case and forward a certified copy of this order to the United States Attorney's Office.
